

Project REDEMPTION

'Sharing hope in the French Speaking World'

To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Acts 26: 18

Bonjour!

May 16, 2014

We are starting something new to help keep you better informed as to what some of our French speaking African team members with Project Redemption are doing. Along with this letter, please find letters from Brothers Emmanuel Bile (pronounced Bee-lay) and Damien Owona. We look forward to sending their prayer letters, originally written in French and then translated into English, on a regular basis from now on.

We've enjoyed working in various projects based at either Camp Arc-en-Ciel or l'Eglise Biblique Baptiste in Lille over the past several years and now, Saint Gaudens, which is located in South-Western France, seems to be becoming a new 'base' for us. L'Eglise Biblique Baptiste du Comminges is a church with folks that we consider 'old friends' now, having been involved in their ministry from time to time since 2009, shortly after the church was begun. Preaching, teaching, singing, visiting, literature distribution, market stands, and practical work along side the missionary/pastor have proven to be fruitful and enjoyable.

On June 28, I will be going to Madagascar for 20 days with a friend from the church in Lille. He is a Malagasy medical doctor and his wife, also Malagasy, is a nursing student in France. They have a desire to use medical clinics to evangelize the rural areas of Madagascar. The missionary/pastor and his wife from Lille are also going. We hope to better understand the needs and challenges in this area and are trusting the Lord Jesus Christ to direct us as to how we might be able to address them. Please pray that this effort will be fruitful and that God's will is accomplished through it.

Rachel is looking forward to a summer full of hard work and blessings at Camp Arc-en-Ciel in Larodde, France. Please pray for the preparations that are currently under way and for God to work in the hearts of the campers and the staff so that Christ will be glorified in saving the lost and sanctifying the saints.

The revision and editing of the French translation of 'The World's Greatest Text', an evangelistic booklet based on John 3:16 and written by Evangelist Ray Bearden is now completed, so we can go forward with the layout and printing. Please pray for this important project.

Thanks for your support, prayer, and encouragement in the work of reaching French speaking people with the life changing message of our Lord Jesus Christ!

Sincerely,

Mark Gostlin
